NPV YOUTH ARTS

NPV YOUTH ARTS

What Is It?

NPV's Youth Arts programme aims to provide young people who have an interest in the Arts with a solid basis for further training and education in this field. The courses are open to everyone aged 11-16, from complete beginners to more seasoned young performers. Whether you are interested in a career on stage, or simply wish to relax and meet some new people, Youth Arts at NPV could be the way to go.

The Programme consists of three courses, all of which aim to widen practical knowledge of different aspects of the Arts. The level at which a student is placed is at the tutors' discretion.

MEMBERSHIP AND FEES

How To Join....and How Much?

NPV have an ongoing repertory of professional Touring Shows for Children, which can be booked for theatres, schools, nurseries, festivals, libraries etc. as well as the well known larger scale performances (e.g.. 'Funnybones', 'The House That Jack Built') regularly staged at NPV's venue - Havil Hall.

PROGRAMME

YOUTH DRAMA

TIME: Monday 5-7pm

This course is comprised of improvised and scripted work, play-making, speech and performance skills. The course is focused on performance, but students may be entered in group tests or examinations where appropriate.*

TUTOR: Cathy Beckett

Cathy BecKett has a BA (Hons) in French and Drama, and has been teaching drama for many years. Before coming to NPV she worked extensively with Lewisham Youth Theatre taking their production of 'Almost Grown' to the National Theatre as part of the 1995 BT National Connections project. Cathy has been with NPV for two years, in which time she has built up a strong drama group as a part of NPV's existing Workshop Programme.

FEE: £3.00 per class

YOUTH MUSICAL THEATRE

TIME: Wed 5-6pm Beginners
Wed 6-7pm Advanced

This course focuses on voice production, singing, movement, performance technique and stagecraft. It aims to develop a variety of skills using games, workshop exercises, & musical and dramatic material.

TUTOR: Teresa Early

As well as being the Artistic Director for NPV, Teresa Early has vast experience of musical theatre, both on and off stage. She writes and directs the shows for which NPV is known. Teresa has been working with young people and helping them towards careers in the Arts for many years.

FEE: £2.00 per class

INTRODUCTION TO CONTEMPORARY DANCE

TIME: Thurs 5-7pm

This course introduces Modern Dance technique, body conditioning and warm ups. It aims to advance the development of technical dance standards in students, and encourage creative development, both as performers and as creators of their own material.*

TUTOR: Jasmine Fitter

Jasmine Fitter is a graduate of the London Contemporary Dance School, where her studies included the Graham and Cunningham technique. Since graduating she has been working extensively with young people, both teaching workshops and on productions.

FEE: £3.00 per class.

*Youth Drama and Introduction to Contemporary Dance will start as one group and may be divided if and when tutors think it necessary.

UNIFORM

There is a compulsory uniform for all classes of black leggings or tracksuit bottoms and a white T-shirt.
Black catsuits or leotards may also be worn for dance classes.
