SENIOR YOUTH THEATRE

"RENT - 1990"

A play devised by NPV Senior Youth Theatre.

The Council is proposing a 10% increase in rents. There is confusion in the ruling group, they are split down the middle, those for and those against. The "Party of the People" is threatening to squeeze them dry.
BY NOW THE PEOPLE HAVE HAD ENOUGH

- Services have been cut
- No one collects the rubbish
- The rats are moving in
- The walkways are filthy and unsafe at night
- Repairs are reported and then left for months on end
- The lifts don't work
- You can't even pay your rent on a regular basis because of staff shortages - offices spend more time closed than open
- Provisions for the old, the sick, and the very young no longer exist because of the cuts

Meanwhile, the Council seems to spend all it's time, energy and resources, trying to track down, and close down a Pirate Radio Station broadcasting from the heart of the Estate, which seems to have more inside information than the Council would like.

SOMETHING'S GOT TO GIVE.

See what happens when the Government's Housing Minister decides to visit a perfectly normal Council Estate in S.E. London on the day of their annual Summer Festival, as a Public Relations Exercise!!!!!!!
